Pilot Structure

Act 1,2,3

ACT 1: Bella and Flynn begin apart. Bella struggles to find a good outlet to publish her writing. Flynn's film idea falls apart while screening a rough cut to class. Ms Wallflower sees both of their dilemmas and offers them a chance to work together, which they turn down after a disagreement.

ACT 2: Flynn leaves the meeting with a new sense of urgency, and makes a failed attempt to recruit help from other students. Bella finally gets the courage to submit her writing to a student publication, but only anonymously. The two meet again after detention, and give each other good creative advice.

ACT 3: As per Bella's advice, Flynn recruits his friend Jasper to help him create a film, which Turns out poorly. Bella is jealous after she sees her friend applauded for openly submitting her work to the student publication with. Realizing their conflicting personalities could help each other, Bella brings Flynn a script and proposes a partnership.

Tone and Style

The cinematic style of the television show will be nostalgic, energetic and creative. The lighting will be bright with hints of graininess. 30 minutes per episode of this 8 episode story will exude that drama high school tv show look from the early 2000s.

The location will be primarily at the high school, WillowView High School. The high school will be covered in sports posters and trophies. The high school has the feel of classrooms like ones in Dawson's Creek and Glee.

The high school is the classic popular v. unpopular crowd in their fashion with following recent trends especially with Bella and her popular crowd. Pops of color/film gear for Flynn.

The music will consist of songs of genres of pop rock and other pop genres. (80/90's rock-Flynn scenes and 2000s Marina, Pop music - Bella scenes, and a touch of modern pop/indie music)

Shows setting the tone for the show include Dawson's Creek, The Sex Lives of College Girls

Characters

The Unlikely Pair

Flynn, a junior film buff who wants to tell stories but no one understands him. His very independent and cocky nature leads to that unfortunate result that no pursuing filmmaker wants to face. His personal fashion is kooky and comfortable.

Bella, a junior, a popular girl with a hidden talent in the creative writing department. She doesn't want anyone to know about her talent for her popularity would crumble from it. She presents herself in the latest trends to fit in. She's very guarded and skeptic, struggling to let her true voice show.

Minor Characters

TEACHERS

Ms. Wallflower: The 30 something year old guidance and college counselor who is a ray of sunshine but keeps it real as she helps her students.

♦ Mr Hopps: Teacher of the a/v club. Passionate about a/v club but is newer teacher as he not as experience.

Friends:

These friends allow the audience to see the two worlds of Flynn and Bella to show how different they really are whether that's how they interact with others and even each other in certain settings.

•Jasper: A 17 year old energetic boy who is friends with Flynn and has a blast in a/v club.

•Viola: The most popular girl in school. She is very confident. People spread to let her roam the halls.

FRANCHISE POTENTIAL

This coming of age story uses themes everyone will relate to with a fresh perspective of the viewpoints of young storytellers. High school drama shows are always in demand for most target audience relates to it. It has potential for a show to go beyond the high school narrative as well.
